

NEIGHBOURHOOD PROFILE - KERRISDALE

Kerrisdale ascends from the Fraser River, sitting pretty in Southwest Vancouver. From traditional bungalows with wildflower gardens to contemporary high-rise apartments with manicured lawns, many different types and styles of homes can be found here. Aged oak trees and lush foliage add extra curb appeal to this quiet, relaxed neighbourhood.

Kerrisdale Village near West 41st Avenue and West Boulevard offers an eclectic mix of cafes, casual restaurants, and independent retailers. Here you will find everything from high tea to bubble tea, precious antiques to modern gadgets, and thrift stores to chic boutiques. There are also many recreational amenities to enjoy in this neighbourhood including the Kerrisdale Community Centre, Cyclone Taylor Arena, and Maple Grove Pool.

HOUSING

OWN VS. RENT

BENCHMARK PRICE

AVERAGE MONTHLY RENT

DWELLING TYPE

DEMOGRAPHICS

MOTHER TONGUE

AGE GROUPS

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

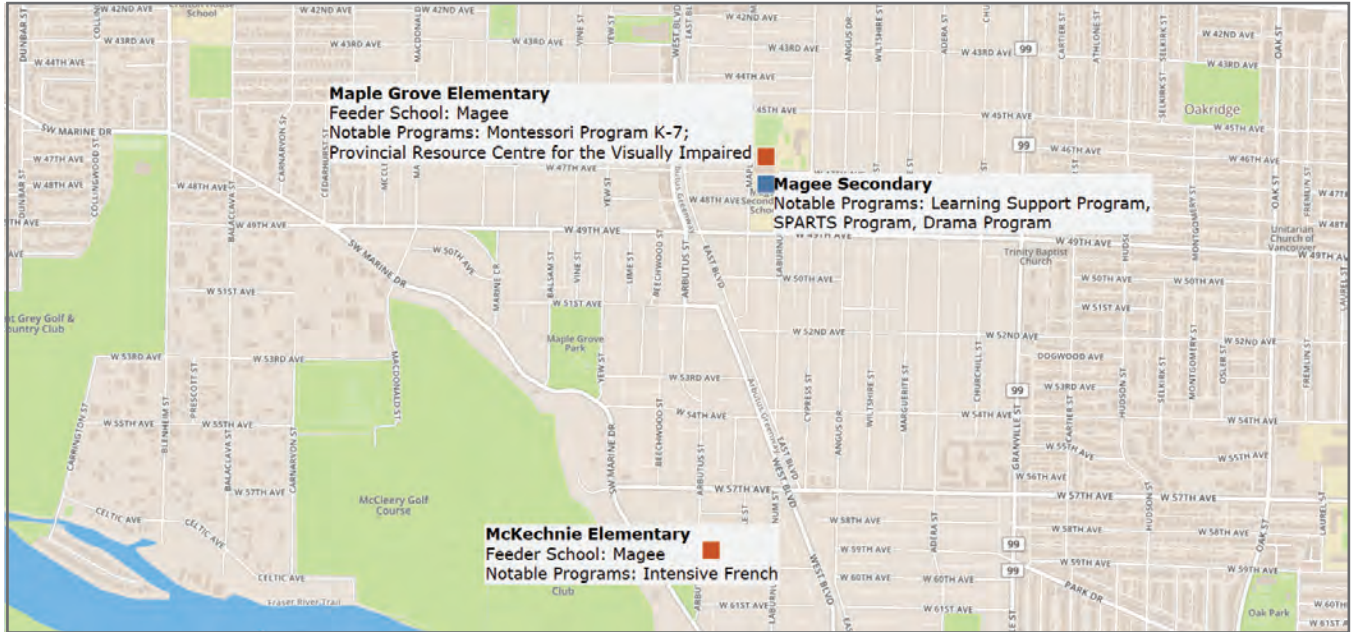

Photo from www.rew.ca

Photo from www.faitwilsongroup.com

Photo credit: Vancouver Park Board

Photo from www.walterhomes.ca